In the beginning

Carol: Children go where I send thee (trad. arr. Randy Crenshaw)

Quem pastores laudavere

The One who the shepherds praised,
And about whom the Angels told:
'Abandon your present fears,'
The King of Glory is born.
To Him the Kings walked, Carrying gold, frankincense and
myrrh,
Offering them religiously,
For the Lion's victory.
Let us rejoice with Mary,
In union with the Celestial Hierarchy,
Singing a pious song to the Newborn,
That be sweet in its melody.

Of Christ the King, God born,
Who was given to us by Mary,

We should sing the merit:
Praise, honour and glory.

Tribus miraculis ornatum

We observe this holy day,
ornamented with three miracles:
Today a star led the Magi to the manger;
Today wine was made from water at the wedding;
Today in the Jordan Christ desired to be baptised by John,
so that He might save us, Alleluia.
